

threadbare. Even the so-called present amendment has been discussed and Sri Narasimhan has sent a minute of dissent. Therefore, I crave the indulgence of Hon'ble Members to sit for a little more time and finish it off.

Sri C. J. MUCKANNAPPA.— I can appreciate the feelings of the Hon'ble Finance Minister. . . .

Mr. SPEAKER.—We shall do like this. On Thursday we shall drop the item of question hour and utilise that time for passing this Bill.

Sri K. PUTTASWAMY.—If the Chair has not yet given a decision, I would like to submit that the question hour may be saved.

Mr. SPEAKER.—All right. It does not matter. I have not decided yet, and I would like to have the question hour because we are not sitting for long and we are adjourning soon. If the Hon'ble Members do not like to forego the question hour, I respect their wishes. The point is, we will have to finish this definitely on Thursday within one hour.

Sri T. MARIAPPA.—At least clause 5 of this Bill may be taken up and finished.

Sri L. S. VENKAJIRAO.—If Hon'ble the leader of the Opposition and other Hon'ble Members agree to finish this off on Thursday by three of the clock, then we may consider the request namely...

Mr. SPEAKER.—It is the desire of the Hon'ble House that on Thursday this should be finished by 3 o' clock.
